Kim Ip, Kindred Swell

September 17, 2021

6:00 p.m.

Gather at the South entrance to Buildings B + C, near Goody Cafe

Kim Ip’s Kindred Swell marks the opening of Fort Mason’s fall art program, and it precedes a sunset viewing of Shimon Attie’s Night Watch barge-based video project. Let’s all watch the sunset together! Following the performance, there will be a “Barge” in the middle of the Marina for those who wish to learn about Fort Mason’s environmental stewardship. The evening will conclude with a viewing of the San Francisco sunset.

ABOUT THE ARTIST

Kim Ip received a B.A. in Dance from Mills College. In a highly personal and metaphorical manner influenced by experiences, she explores the body and its relationship to memory and place. Her work has been recognized by awards from Dance USA’s Artists-in-Residence Program and the Hearing Impaired Dance Project. The newly commissioned Kindred Swell is Ip’s 2nd show at Fort Mason.
